NEW PRESIDENT INSTALLED, FETED

BOARD ACCEPTS SUGGESTIONS OF PRES. BECKER

One of the suggestions made by President C. H. Becker which were accepted by the Wartburg College Board of Regents at their meeting Monday, May 7, was the creation of a new administrative position, the office of the Dean of the Student Body. The present office of Dean of Men will be discontinued, and the functions will be taken over by the Dean of the Student Body. Other functions are the planning and supervision of the activities of the student-body outside the classroom, and student counseling relative to courses, quality of work, behavior, etc.

As a counterpart to this, there will also be a Dean of the Faculty, and the present office of Dean of the College held by Dr. G. J. Neumann, will also be discontinued. Personnel for the new offices, to be effective this fall, has not yet been determined.

Four new members are to be added to the staff by fall. They are a Dean of Women, a social work director, a speech and dramatic instructor, and a coach of athletics.

An important addition to the curriculum will be a social worker. The purpose of this course is described by President Becker as follows: (1) To develop interest in and to offer undergraduate training for those who wish to go into graduate social work training. (2) To equip students as adequately as possible who wish to accept social work positions in an undergraduate level. (3) To offer service courses as Introduction to the Field of Social Work, Public Welfare, Case Work, with special emphasis on interviewing, Group Work and others.

The board of regents also accepted plans to increase the capacity of Wartburg Hall, women's dormitory, and to enlarge and to remodel the dining hall. These plans must, however, be approved by the Board of Trustees of the American Lutheran Church at their meeting early in June. President Becker plans to attend this meeting.

Prof. Alvin Fritz, dean of men at Wartburg since 1935, has resigned, effective at the close of the Summer session, and has accepted a position at Pacific Lutheran College at Parkland, Wash. His resignation was accepted by the Board.

Mrs. Fritz has been dean of women at the college.

POSSIBILITY OF STUDENT UNION FOR WARTBURG

Will Wartburg Students get a student union next year? The Alumni Association will decide this issue on May 21.

The program will include such speakers as Rev. Wm. G. Sodt, D.D., First Vice-President of the American Lutheran Church and superintendent of the Passavant Hospital in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

The business meeting is to begin at 3:00 p. m. in the Wartburg auditorium. It is at this meeting the question of whether or not to establish a campus social center will be discussed. If passed, such a center would be started next year as a project of the Alumni Association. Other business will consist of thirteen other resolutions, reports, and election of new officers.

At 6:30 p. m. Rev. Roald Brauk of Independence, Iowa, will preside as toastmaster at the Alumni Banquet. Dr. Sodt will be the main speaker, with the graduating members of Wartburg as guests. Special decorations are to be designed by Helen Wright, instructor of art at Wartburg. The banquet will be served at St. Paul's Parish Hall.

Rev. H. J. Jech of St. Paul, Minnesota, is in charge of the Nominations Committee, and Rev. A. Schantl, Cedar Falls, Iowa, is chairman of the Banquet Committee. Dr. Sodt is chairman of the Resolutions Committee.

Chapters To Be

Alumni chapters will be formed in two new areas. The first will be organized in Greeley, Colorado, May 11, and the other in Des Moines, May 13. Rev. C. G. Shalkhauser will be present at the organization of each chapter.

Five new chapters have been organized and one district chapter in Wisconsin.

The festivities began with an ample "banquet" in the "shady forest" in front of Wartburg Hall. The court of honor was called to order by the Court Trumpeters, Nancy Langholz. Lord Keller extended to King Becker the welcome of the Knights and gave him the scepter, not only for the day, but for his entire reign at Wartburg. The King was entertained by jesters, troubadours, court poets, and tournaments of skill, introduced by Court Herald, Mel Mintz. The Knights participated in a quest and closed court with their pledge of loyalty to "King and Kingdom" with the "Loyalty Song".

FAITH OF OUR FATHERS

The words of President Poppen in his sermon at St. Paul's Sunday morning certainly should have stirred the hearts of all true Wartburgers. The head of our church, in his inaugural address for the installation of Wartburg's new president, spoke of the great heritage which Wartburg has. He spoke of the old Wartburg castle in Germany where Luther, the founder of Lutheranism, toiled; he mentioned the originators of this school (a handful of devout, God fearing, Lutheran missionaries who braved the perils and dangers of the Iowa wilderness and with visionary zeal and glowing faith laid the foundation of our present day Wartburg). He referred to those Wartburg graduates who today are serving their church and their God as instructors in our schools and seminaries, the hundreds of well trained clergy and the consecrated laity, all of whom are part of that heritage that we should cherish and of which we can be justly proud. Wartburg's new president, Rev. C. H. Becker is part of that heritage for he too is a graduate of both Wartburg College and Wartburg Seminary.

Wartburg College was established "to preserve to posterity the spiritual and cultural heritage of the Evangelical Lutheran Church." Our Christian high schools have been the chief conduit tor to the growth of Church. Our forefathers realized the tremendous importance of these schools and saw that the training of pastors was an absolute necessity if the work of saving souls was to make progress. Today's Wartburg is a composite of five institutions which have been merged together to form one school which is to serve our vast mid-western constituency. Much has been written and spoken about the "Greater Wartburg," but now we must see that this is the time when we must go to work. We must catch some of the missionary zeal of our church fathers, translate words into actions and ideas and ideals into realities.

As the official student newspaper of Wartburg College, The Trumpet would like to take this opportunity to pledge its full hearted support and loyalty to President Becker. We are confident that under his leadership and with the backing of the church and its members that Greater Wartburg will become a reality.

THE EDITORS.

By RUDOLF MARTENS

The school year is rapidly coming to a close, and again we students at Wartburg can look back upon a year richly blessed by God and resplendent with glorious signs of His goodness to us, we who deserve nothing but punishment. Again we have been fortunate to see the rebirth of nature as the trees have taken on their spring-time raiment and the woods and meadows have begun to show forth their God-given beauty. Oh, we cannot praise Him enough for all that He has done for us. Peace has again returned to a large part of this war-torn world and while the hardships of the reconstruction period are still to be overcome, the world at least feels that there is an opportunity for peace in the years to come. The process of removing the cutward marks of war has already begun in Europe, but the fearful task of erasing horrible memories in the hearts of men has not even begun. This is an enterprise which, though enormous in size, can be accomplished through Jesus Christ, our Lord. He has shown us the one way to succeed in this grave work, the way that begins and ends in love, which passes all understanding, the love of God which is again beautifying our old world in this, its hour of tragedy. is the answer to the questions and strivings of mankind. "Hatred stirreth up strife, but love covereth all sins." Prov. 10:12.

Ascension Day

Hail the day that sees Him rise,
To His throne above the skies!
Christ, awhile to mortals given,
Reascends His native Heaven.
There the glorious triumph waits,
Lift your heads, eternal gates.
Wide unfold the radiant scene
Take the King of glory in.
Him though highest Heaven receives,
Still He loves the earth He leaves,
Though returning to His throne,
Still He calls mankind His own.

—(Charles Wesley).

"Ever since the Christian century presented its series of articles on the subject of Catholicism winning America, there has been much to do about the influence of Roman Catholicism in American life. Editorial writers have vigorously pounded their typewriters, and denominational orators have held forth with special eloquence. We will do well to understand that raving, ranting and denunciation in and by itself will never serve to frustrate any designs which Roman Catholicism may have on America. We know that Rome thinks of itself as the only saving church. If this be true, then it would follow from Rome's point of view that it owes it to America as a duty of love to take over at the earliest possible moment. The only effective way in which we can counteract the influence of Rome is to proceed aggressively to give America a religion which is founded on the Bible and not on human traditions and papal decrees, which is centered in Christ and not in workrighteousness, which proclaims the royal priesthood of all believers and which bears in it the seeds of democracy rather than the principles of an over-lording hierarchy which makes for fascism and tyranny. The Lutheran Church is equipped to give America such a Bible-founded, Christ – centered, freedom-bearing religion. Let us give it freely, unceasingly, in season and out of season, and then, under God, Rome shall not win America."

(O. A. Geiseman, The American Lutheran, April, 1945)

the editor's desk

It seems that one of the visitors on Senior Day was disappointed at not finding swivel chairs, roll-top desks, and the saying goes, the like in our little Trumpet office. Well, should such luxuries be offered us, we'd never refuse them, but the bare necessities that we have now seem to get the job done.

Q's & Q's

Another bouquet of those high-priced flowers to Charlie Pichelmeyer, Rudy Zimmerman, and the campus crew for getting the buildings and campus in such fine shape this spring.

Q's & Q's

Wartburg really had some of the great minds of the American Lutheran Church on her campus during this past week. It makes one feel a little closer to the Church and gives a feeling that someone is taking an interest in the work done here.

Q's & Q's

Orchids to the retiring student senate and student body presy. They have done very capable job of managing student activities on the campus.

Q's & Q's

Maybe you have noticed this column and others perenially found in the Trumpet have been conspicuous by their absence of late. News has been over-abundant; we have been able to get some very good pictures; and many other factors have given us much more copy than we needed. It seems a shame to have to leave anything out of the Trumpet, but we just don't have enough space.

Q's & Q's

The editorial department would take this opportunity to bid farewell to its writers from the ranks of the seniors, two-year teachers, and others who will be leaving school. Thank you very much for the work you have done. We hope all the staff members who return to school next fall will come out and work on the Trumpet again as faithfully as this year.

Q's & Q's

This is the last issue of the Trumpet during this school year. If any of you students who are leaving school want to subscribe to next year's Trumpet, now is the time to do so.

On May 10th, Loretta Baumgartner (43-44) and Arnold Raabe (44) who was Student Body President during his senior year will be married at Strawberry Point. Arnie is also a Sem student.

CONVOCATIONS

Dr. Theodore C. Seybold, missionary-educator from India spoke at convocation on Monday, April 30. In his speech Missionary Seybold said, "Fatalism hangs like a dark shadow on India!" He concluded his speech by saying that the life of the church depends upon mission work.

On Tuesday a movie entitled "Alaska's Silver Millions" was shown.

Wednesday Dr. Hiltner was in charge of devotion.. His address concerning prayer centered around James 4:3 "Ye ask and receive not, because you ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your lusts." Among the numerous comments he presented, he said that prayer becomes a dangerous element when we are not ready to receive the blessings for which we ask.

The" German Club" entertained the convo audience on Thursday. The "German" quartet, composed of Clarence Wegerad, Norwood Rachuy, Clifford Dirksen, and Roland Wittrock, sang "Gott sei Dank dass." Elroy Bunge played two piano selections, and Fritz Heupel read the story " The Kaiser and the Abbot."

At Friday's devotion, which was conducted by Burton Schwerin, Herb Richmann played the piano selection "Largo." Burton's text was based on Matthew 6:34, "A pound of worry won't pay an ounce of death," he said. "The present-day hath enough trouble of its own."

Monday Rev. Fangmeyer spoke at convocation. He based his address on Romans 11:18 and 17, and spoke about the tie which should and which does exist between the local congregation and Wartburg college.

The end of the European War was observed with a special devotional service conducted by President Becker. After the service Pastor Frederick Schlotz spoke to the convo audience and meditated on the difference between a Christian student and a Christian and a student.

A movie on the "Romance of Coffee" was given at Wednesday's Convo.

Herb Brokering had charge of the convocation on Thursday and led in the singing of old, favorite songs, which were shown on the screen by the movie projector.

II Timothy 3:13-17 was the text chosen by Neal Hilton for Friday's convocation. He spoke of the danger of false teachers in the church and said, "We should continue in the things we have learned and take the Holy Scriptures as our only religious guide since they alone can make us wise into salvation."

INDOOR "HIKE"

We know it is very unusual for it to rain in Waverly, but nevertheless on April 15, what should it do? Oh, you are right—it rained. The all-school hike, which was to take place that eventful day, turned into a joyous picnic held down in the gym. Preceding the picnic lunch, however, two very exciting games of volley-ball were played. The freshmen stood the upperclassmen during the first game and yes, they got beat!!! The upperclassmen were bound to win with that Nebraska swing of "Herb's"—a plug for Nebraska??? The second game was uproarious —John Keller, referee, did manage to escape in one piece.

After such strenuous exercise, everyone gorged themselves with food—was it good!!!

The last bit having been devoured, everyone departed slowly, some going one way, some another way—either way was all right!!! In spite of rain, "a good time was had by all."

REMINISCING

It was back in September—you had never been asked to write for the Trumpet before—and you were on the feature staff. And what was your first contribution? One hot coal for the ash can. When you read it in the Trumpet you recognized it only by your roommate's name—maybe it had been rewritten, but it was still your idea! And then as the weeks passed, you helped this ash can soon begin to smoke furiously and become the hottest section of the paper.

Maybe your talent, however, lay in another field. It might have been a simple poem which you (and probably you only) loved because it was your very own. Or was it merely clever cartooning of some event—an auction, a picnic, or any incident—which you were to portray with all its color and vigor. Or was it that you were asked to write something about anything and the only thing you knew anything about was anything! And you wondered just how often you could mention your own name without betraying that you were its author. What! You a senior and writing those "Dear Mom" stories. And then to sign it—"a freshman"—why, that's forgery.

Maybe, however, you were the author of the more serious aspect of the feature. It might have been "convocations or music notes" or perhaps "Campus News and Views". Although you favored the humorous pages, you saw a definite need for an emphasis of the religious and more cultural aspects of the campus.

But what you liked best of all was that your could always write a personal conscious hand in your articles or three—well maybe a week late, but one more.

Maybe your humor wasn't always the best—maybe your poetry had an extra word here or there—or your hot coal was found to need an evil implication. But, good or bad, it was your best. And it was a grand year with the feature staff.

A Friend in Need

John Hilmer, Ph. D., Wartburg professor of religion and philosophy, has been serving as minister of a congregation!

When the Rev. A. Tehr, pastor of St. John's Lutheran church of Nashua, Iowa, was temporarily laid up, Dr. Hilmer took over. His duties include instruction of the adult confirmation class on Saturdays and the conducting of services on Sundays.

Hot Coals From -:-The Ash Can-:-

Ah, yes! Spring is here in all its glory. Platonic friendships are blooming into something more binding. Outward signs are manifested in the recipiency in the field of glass and friendship rings.

Why did Rosalee and Kurtz get their heads caught in the dishwasher the other morning?

And why does Verry Bohling go to Cedar Falls? He claims he is taking a first-hand survey of Revivus meetings which are held there, but we're beginning to wonder.

Herb Brokering: "They used to really pay a lot of money for skunk furs back home. It was very easy trapping them too."

Jack Schaefer: "Why do I know anything about that. I've never had any experience with wild life from Nebraska."

(Ed's Note—"Oh, no?!!!")

And then there was the Des Moines Register photographer who wondered if one of the Ad Building was the front.

You wonder why this column isn't any more fun to read? It isn't because one feature writer had a date, another just didn't know any Hot Coals and smoke just couldn't think. Oh, No! We just didn't want to create any ill feelings in this, the last Trumpet, and we decided this could best be accomplished by curtailing our Hot Coals. (It is good to end on a note of scream.)

V-E Day Services

Wartburg students attended three V-E Day exercises in Waverly.

Convocation in the morning consisted of the service as planned by the Federal Council of Churches in America.

Students were given a half-holiday to attend Waverly civic exercises, beginning at 3:00 p. m. President C. H. Becker of Wartburg College was the main speaker.

St. Paul's Lutheran Church had services at 8:00 p. m., at which Rev. Otto Fangmeyer, pastor, preached. Alvin Zellinger (Wartburg student) sang a special solo.

News Concerning Other Lutherans

Finnish: Archbishop Aleski E. Lentonen was consulted by three American Lutheran leaders during their recent stay in Stockholm. Although unable to reach Finland, the visitors were given a detailed account of conditions by the Finnish churchman. After expressing great anxiety over the churches in Estlonia and Latvia, the American delegation is now making preparations to visit France. (N.N. C.)

"Lutheran theologians will meet at the second Lutheran Theological Professor's Conference which will be held May 28 and 29 at Dubuque, Iowa at the Wartburg Theological Seminary." (—Lutheran Standard).

Towerside Chats

Edwin A. Schick of Eureka, S. Dakota, who has been teaching at the Seminary for the past semester, and who planned to enter the Navy Chaplaincy sometime in May, received notification from the Navy Department last week that he was not acceptable for the Chaplaincy because of faulty vision. Of the seven men who plan to enter the Chaplaincy, Schick is the first to be classified not acceptable.

May 16 is the date of commencement exercises here at Wartburg Seminary. Twelve men will be graduated and declared acceptable for the ministry in the American Lutheran church. Following is a list of the graduates and their respective calls:

Erwin Franke, a congregation in Belgrade, Minnesota

Kenneth Franzen, a mission congregation in Bowling Green, Ohio.

Fred Scherle, the New Guinea Mission field. He will attend the Mission School until August when he will receive further assignment.

Edwin Schick will probably attend post graduate school in the fall.

"OLD SOUTH" AT BANQUET

The dining room of the Fortner Hotel was transformed to a scene from the "Old South," Saturday night, May 5, when the Junior Class was host to the graduating Seniors and guests.

A life-size replica of a Southern belle, her beau, and a pecking pickaninny, in a garden setting, covered one wall. Garden flowers and rose trees decorated the tables.

Each girl received a nosegay, and each boy a boutonniere of violets. The menus were fashioned like cotton bolls. At each place there were memory booklets.

The President of the Junior Class, Marvin Ackermann, acted as toastmaster. He welcomed the guests, who responded through Erwin Wiedel, Senior Class President. Lois Landdeck played the piano solos "Birth of the Blues," and her own "Boogie."

President Becker addressed the group and challenged them to prepare themselves to know "why" they were doing their task and to know "what" they desired from it. Betty Blehm sang, "Pickaninny Babe" and "Lady Moon." Henry W. Burms of Allison, Iowa, was the main speaker of the evening. He spoke on the student's part in peace and rehabilitation. Ronald Jensen sang "The End of a Perfect Day." The evening's program was closed with a benediction by President Becker.

The evening's menu consisted of fruit cocktail with mint, Virginia-baked ham, escalloped potatoes, gelatin salad, succotash, pumpkin pie with whipped cream, and coffee.

PARISH WORKERS RECEIVE CALL TO POSITIONS

This year's parish workers class —Johanna Eickhoff, Betty Johnson, Irmgard Knock—have all received and accepted calls. The demand is expressed through the calls that are continuously coming in, many of which cannot be filled.

Johanna Eickhoff of Burkhardt, Wisconsin, has accepted a call to First Lutheran Church at Beaver Dam, Wisconsin, Rev. A. Wittman, pastor. Her duties are teaching in Sunday and vacation Bible schools, organist, conductor of three choirs, and supervision of Junior and Senior Luther League, as well as the Mission Band. She will begin her duties in September.

Betty Johnson of Gilmore City, Iowa, has accepted a position at St. Paul's Lutheran Church at Tama, Iowa, Pastor Woodrich. Her duties will consist of contact work as well as Sunday school and choir work. She will take over her duties on May 24.

Irmgard Knock of Shell Rock, Iowa, has accepted a call to St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church at Toledo, Ohio, Rev. C. A. Wiedenmann, pastor. Her duties will include contact work, the teaching of Bible History, and secretarial work. She takes over her position the first week in June.

Esther Weise (42) has recently been working at the Lutheran Welfare Society in Milwaukee. She is a social worker in the children's depot.

Track and Field Squad

WARTBURG DIAMOND CREW SPLITS WITH SIMPSON TEAM

The Wartburg Knights journeyed to Indianola last Tuesday and split a return doubleheader engagement with the Simpson Redmen. The Hertelmen won their fourth straight game in the opener when they rallied to win 6-3. The Redmen took an early 4-0 lead, but the Knights staged a three run uprising in the fourth to get back into the ball game. Burt Schwerin started the fireworks with a long home run. Olmstead followed with a double. Koch hit safely, Bangert got life on an error and then Jensen drove a hard ground ball down the third base line that drove in two runs. Lowell Koch scored the tying run in the sixth, scoring from third on an infield out.

The winning run came across in the seventh when Loots singled, stole second and scored when Schwerin rapped out a double. The latter scored a few moments later when Koch slammed a ground ball into left.

Ted Olmsted pitched beautiful ball after the first inning and fanned twelve batters. Butler, Simpson southpaw, eased his slow curve past twelve Knight hitters. Schwerin led the hitters with three blows, a home run, a triple, and a game-winning double.

Simpson 9, Knights 3

Simpson's 6 foot 9 inch Dale Dykstra pitched his mates to a 9-3 win in the nightcap. Bill Hanson who shut Simpson out 4-0 in a previous game at Waverly ran into trouble in his second attempt. His offerings were hit hard by the opposition who collected ten safe blows. Some loose defensive work on the part of the Knights contributed to the downfall. Dykstra limited the Knights to six singles, one of which was a home run by hard-hitting Schwerin, the Knight third baseman.

The victory in the opening game insured the mythical Iowa Conference Championship for the Wartburg nine. They took three out of four games from Simpson and beat Luther 13-3 in their one game with the Norsemen. It is doubtful whether any more games will be played this spring.

KNIGHT CAGE SQUAD FETED THIRD TIME

Wednesday, May 2, 1945—St. Paul's Parish House—that was the time and place of the third basketball banquet of the year. The ample banquet was sponsored by the local Chamber of Commerce honoring the Waverly High School and Wartburg College cagers.

The main speaker of the evening was the head coach of the University of Iowa team, Prof. Harrison. He gave the true facts of the stories behind the headlines of his Iowa players.

Waverly's Sgt. Bergman told the group of his days as a Nazi prisoner. The Wartburg College trio entertained, and Ralph Cook of Waterloo captured the attention of the audience with his fiery song-directing. A football movie of the 1939 Iowa-Indiana game was also shown.

Jane Buechele (43-4) was a campus visitor last week end. She has been doing secretarial work in Grafton for the past months.

KNIGHTS TO HAVE A NEW COACH

Dr. E. Hertel, who has been serving as Wartburg's coach for the past two years, will be replaced by a full-time athletic director. This move was confirmed at the Board of Regents meeting here on Monday, May 7.

"Doc" did a splendid job of keeping competitive athletics up to par at Wartburg despite war conditions. In fact, it may be said, to Hertel's credit that his teams made some of the finest showings in the Iowa Conference that any Wartburg team has made for some time. His 1943-44 basketball team ranked as the best civilian team in the loop. His 1944 football team finished second in the conference, bowing only to Simpson.

Hertel's '44-45 basketball team broke six ronference records, including the total points for the season and field goals for the season. Two of his stars, Ted Olmstead and Lowell Koch, broke four conference individual scoring records.

This year's baseball nine captured the mythical conference baseball crown.

Our hats are off to Dr. Hertel for the excellent work he has done.
